TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fertilizing constituents, 6 pr. ct. of Coprolyte, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.,

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Barham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E. Barham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL,
SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Sept. 24, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

The Situation.

Our position as public journalists is too solemn and responsible, to allow us to treat lightly or unfairly the intensely interesting and all-absorbing questions, arising out of the unfortunate and disastrous war through which we have passed, and which now deeply agitate the country. We would not deceive our readers if we could. We are linked to no party for good or evil, but we are for our country, our whole country, for weal or woe. The fabric of government devised by our fathers, rightly and properly administered, we believe to be the best government in the world. Its foundation principles are sacred and essential to American liberty, and, if we know ourselves, our highest aim is to perpetuate those principles and preserve them untarnished to the latest generation, if possible.

The political contest which is now being waged between the President of the United States and his supporters on the one hand, and the majority of the National Congress and their supporters on the other, is assuming a fearful aspect. The people of North Carolina cannot be indifferent spectators in this contest, and, though they are not permitted to be active participants in it, yet it is their solemn duty to acquaint themselves accurately with the whole question, and to give what moral support they can to that cause, which they are sure most fully accords with and sustains the foundation principles of the government, and looks to the most speedy and the most just disposition of the questions in controversy, in order to the full restoration of peace and harmony between the States and the perpetuity of the Union.

We cannot doubt that this is the chief object and aim of the great body of the people of the United States of all parties. Yet it is too apparent, that the active partizan leaders of the two great parties at the North have not divested themselves of the lust of power and office, of the passions which the contest has engendered, or of the selfishness which attaches to party, sufficiently, to coolly and deliberately look, solely, to the future welfare of the whole nation. We believe that but few have risen to the height which President Johnson has attained, in the sacrifice of self and party for the sake of saving the country. The party managers of both the Republican and Democratic parties appear to us to be oblivious of and indifferent to the condition of the Southern States, and the peace of the Union, in their determination, the one to hold on to, and the other to gain, partizan ascendancy under their own party designations.—Under such disadvantages the National Union party, the party of the President, of the Constitution and the Union, is now and has been struggling. The plain question, therefore, with the people of North Carolina, is, having first satisfied themselves that the Presidential or National Union party has right and justice and the Constitution and the true interests of peace and Union and American liberty on its side, whether they shall stand or fall with that party. Our motto is, to stand for the right, though the heavens fall, rather than meanly succumb to wrong and dishonor, in order to gain "the best we can get."

We support the President, not because of his position, nor because he is a friend of the South. Any man looking solely to Southern interest,—any man who consults only Southern feeling or Southern views, could not give the President an undivided support. But we support him unhesitatingly, because his plan is National, comprehending the interests and the peace of the whole Republic and the perpetuity and preservation of the Constitution and the Union.

If his policy fail before the people, it will be justly attributable to two causes: First, the false and unfounded charges made against the Southern people on the score of loyalty, the corruption and bitter hatred which exists among Southern "so-called" Union men, leading them to misinterpret and misrepresent the masses of the Southern people as to their feeling towards the blacks and Union men in the South, as well as towards the Northern people. These misrepresentations and false charges have been made against the earnest remonstrances of the Southern people and in violation of truth and justice. Secondly, the bitterness which exists between the two great political parties North, leading them, at the risk of the peace and harmony of the country, to keep up their party machinery and to force upon the people offensive candidates having their own party designations, rather than men who are true National Union men, who are known always to have been conservative and for the Union. These causes may defeat the President. What then?

Shall the people of North Carolina, on this account, because the right fails, therefore embrace and vote for the Howard amendment, or any other measure which they believe to be unjust and false to the government of our fathers and to the Union and the South? Certainly not.

The President has made his appeal to the people. If the people reject his plan and adopt the Howard amendment, he is bound to submit to that decision and to enforce it. He will most certainly abide the decision of the majority of the people. With equal alacrity must the South submit to the will of the majority. But that constitutes no reason why the people of North Carolina or the South should vote for it. We honestly believe, that amendment contains principles adverse to the genius of the government and destructive of it, and which must always operate to the damage of the South. Can we, therefore, vote for or approve it? Never. But if the people choose to change the organic character of this government, they have a right to do it, and the minority must submit.

"Antecedents."

In the first resolution adopted by the "Mass Meeting" which met in Mr. Holden's office, and which repudiated the President, endorsed the Howard amendment, and nominated Gen. Dockery for Governor in opposition to Gov. Worth, there is a wise saving clause. In declaring that none but "unmistakably loyal" men should be elected to office,—a doctrine, in its proper construction, which meets our cordial approval,—it is very prudently added "without regard to antecedents." Mr. Thomas reported the resolutions, and either he or Mr. Holden drew them. Both knew what they were about. Both knew that they had been active promoters of the war, and that if "antecedents" were to be considered their ridiculous pretensions to being peculiar and pre eminently "unmistakably loyal" would not go down even with the more moderate Radicals. Their endorsement of the Howard amendment, and their zealous co-operation with the Radical factionists, is a bid for absolution in the event of its adoption, at the hands of the Congress,—an absolution which they will promptly get, or the Radical Congress will be guilty of gross ingratitude. Then, with a large and the most intelligent portion of their fellow-citizens disfranchised, such men may stand a chance to get office,—the goal and summit of all their aspirations, the object and aim of all their exertions. To get office for themselves and friends, they are willing to trample under foot the dearest rights of their fellow-citizens and all the muniments of civil liberty. To get office they would place North Carolina,—the dear old land of our pride and affections,—in the condition of turbulence and lawlessness that so unfortunately prevails in Tennessee, under the operation of a law that disfranchises three-fourths of its citizens. It is to get office, which the people have refused them, that they would open the Pandora's box of evils that lies in and under the Howard amendment.

But as to the "antecedents." Mr. Holden's are too notorious to require comment. He educated the people of the State to believe in secession,—and every body knows the fact. But Mr. Thomas' "antecedents" are not so well known. We confess that, until within a day or two past, we had not known that he was so true a friend of the Southern Confederacy, in its earlier existence at least, and such an out-and-outer for "t-i-g-h-t." But if any one will take the trouble to look over the journals of the Convention of 1861, he will find that, on the 29th. of November, Mr. Thomas offered a resolution, in which, among other sentiments, is expressed "an undiminished confidence in the justice of our cause."

But this is not half. Mr. Thomas was actually a candidate for the first Confederate Congress, and in his circular, dated Oct. 12, 1861, which we have before us, announcing himself as such, he declares:

"By various causes we have been driven to an act of separation from the old government,—causes sufficient to justify that act to the conscience of the citizen, and, we trust, to the Public Opinion of the civilized world.

We are united in the new government in purpose, sentiment and feeling; and our union will strengthen the better and surer, if free from the spirit of party.

Whether in humble or distinguished position, in private or public station, I will, with honest purpose, faithfully and with what ability I can, contribute to the support of all such measures as may be deemed necessary for the prosecution of the war in which we are engaged; to the securing and maintaining a free and independent government of Confederate States; and the preservation of those great fundamental principles of Free Representative Government, without a constant recurrence and fixed adherence to which, nothing after all would be gained by the Revolution."

Yet such men are "unmistakably loyal," while thousands who took up arms or otherwise aided the struggle under their advice, and at their instigation, are to be branded as "traitors!"—And why? Because, primarily, the people will not elect such men to office,—and because they will not advocate a measure which is to cut their own throats, strip them of their constitutional liberty and franchises, affix upon themselves and their posterity the brand of political inferiority and degradation, and which opens the door to negro suffrage. Could political inconsistency, duplicity or treachery go further?

Gen. Dockery, the Radical Nominee.

We have not heard whether Gen. Dockery accepts or declines the Radical nomination made in the Standard office last Thursday.—We are still of opinion that he will not accept, yet we certainly have no objection to the old gentleman's trying his strength against Jonathan Worth. His nomination and acceptance bind him to the Radical platform, to opposition to President Johnson and in favor of the Howard amendment. We are ready to meet these issues with any man before the people of North Carolina.

We learn that Mr. Holden says he will accept, that he will canvass the State, beginning at the centre and going westward. Gov. Worth, we presume, will not follow him. Indeed, we know that the duties of the Executive office will positively prevent it. But we presume there will be gentlemen on hand, who are always in the harness, friends of President Johnson and Gov. Worth, who will ventilate the positions of Mr. Holden and his endorser, Gen. Dockery. He will be held up closely to the defence of the Howard amendment and the positions of his new friends, the Radicals.

The New Orleans market is reported bare of sugar—a very rare occurrence. The sugar (home production) receipts during the last buisness year are reported at 19,000 hogsheads, against 450,000 hogsheads in 1861.

How Each Played His Part!

Each one of the delegates to the late "Union Mass Meeting," which assembled in the little editorial office of the Standard establishment, seems to have had his specific role assigned him. There were no idle men in that multitudinous concourse. The machinery of the simplest meeting, not to say of a mass meeting, requires the distinctive services of several persons, and, accordingly, all of the delegates aforesaid had their allotted parts. Who constituted the audience, or the body of the "Convention," is a matter of curious speculation. Rumor says that there was an audience of two or three gentlemen present,—at least one of whom, though originally disposed to approve the general objects of the meeting, having found that it was determined to swallow the Howard amendment, has not scrupled since to express his repudiation of the whole concern.

Mr. Holden was President, two other delegates were Secretaries, eleven others constituted the committee on resolutions, and two others, not provided for in the foregoing distribution of honors, were appointed a committee to apprise Gen. Dockery of his nomination. Does the inquisitive reader, who looked over the list of hotel arrivals, about the time of the "meeting," miss any familiar name from the official proceedings? In his speculative researches, for instance, and with a commendable thirst for information, does he wonder what became of Mr. E. W. Carpenter? We have it not in our power, unfortunately, to satisfy the enquiry, in any authentic shape. Possibly, however, in view of his peculiar historic aptitudes, we have a clue to Mr. Carpenter's role in the following Raleigh-gram which is luminously displayed in the columns of the Northern Radical press:

"At a stated meeting of the Union men in North Carolina, held in Raleigh to-day, Hon. Alfred Dockery was nominated for Governor. The Constitutional amendment was unanimously endorsed as the only issue between the two parties of the State."

Ex Governor Holden, who was chosen President, delivered an able address, heartily endorsing the candidate and platform. Letters from distinguished Union men were received from different parts of the State, pledging their support to the movement.

Mr. Dockery stands boldly on the Howard amendment and the white basis, which will give him a large majority in Western North Carolina, and may elect him with the vote he will receive in the other portions of the State."

The Duty of all Intelligent Men.

The Southern people were never, perhaps, so indifferent to partizan politics, as at the present time. The pressure of their material condition, and the untoward results of their past political partizan efforts, have made them so. They have a right to be sick of party—sick of mere politicians and entirely disgusted with demagogues. But, nevertheless, the Southern people were never more deeply concerned in political matters than at present. The Southern man who is now indifferent to results, takes no part in voting, or instructing himself and the people in the duties of the hour, is recreant to himself, his children and his country. The Southern man who does not sustain the President and his policy, believing him to be right, is chargeable with ingratitude and recreancy to the South and the Union.

It is the duty of every man who can read a newspaper, to do so, to inform himself, and every intelligent, well informed man in the State ought to address the people upon the true position of public affairs. Every Holdenite, who can make a speech, will do so in this canvass, to sustain Holden and Dockery and the Howard amendment and the Radicals. They are constantly publishing to the world that "Union men are unsafe in North Carolina"—that they dare not express their sentiments, and yet none of them are afraid to avow their sentiments and every where they will make speeches in support of their views. We are glad of it.—They know the arrant falsehood of these statements—every body knows they are false. No one wishes them to blink their sentiments.—Let them out with them. But let the Johnson-Worth men meet them at every point. Let them meet Gen. Dockery or any body else who addresses the people, and let the people hear both sides.

The Itinerant Miscegenists.—H. G. Norton, who was a delegate to the Mulatto Convention at Philadelphia, and lately one of the company of travelling miscegens, states that he has been forced to leave the mixed crowd through disgust at their designs and repugnance at associating with negroes upon terms of social equality.

A correspondent of the New York Herald says:

"Norton represents himself as having been in their full confidence and present at their private meetings. Their secret designs, he says, startled and disgusted him. Their main object he declared to be to make an easy living without honest labor, and to get what money they can out of the credulous dupes upon whom they can impose. In order to successfully carry out this game they are ready to make their speeches to suit their audiences, agreeably with their instructions from the politicians by whom they are used in the different localities they visit. But in their meetings among themselves they make no secret of their determination after the fall elections to incite a negro insurrection. They say they must have immediate negro suffrage or negro insurrection. In their confidential conversations they say this is a very good way to get a living to-day; but when the elections are over these people will not want us, and then our only chance is to get the upper hand of the Southern rebels by the aid of disfranchisement and negro votes, or to exterminate them by means of a negro insurrection and another war, which would be sure to follow. The discovery of this design, Mr. Norton says, determined him to break his association with the adventurers. He was further resolved upon his course in consequence of their familiar associations with negroes, Randolph, the black miscegen, who is one of the party, eating, drinking and sleeping with Jack Hamilton and the other whites."

The Rev. Hope Baine is represented as being also disgusted with the company. He objected, a few days ago, to their intimate social intercourse with negroes, and was told he had better go away.

The Case of Mr. Davis.

Fort Monroe, Sept. 12.—Bishop Greene, of Mississippi, an old friend of Jeff. Davis, accompanied by Mr. John W. Keeley, an ex-Catholic divine, arrived here this morning on a visit to the prisoner. In their interview with Mr. Davis, Bishop Greene remarked the great desire prevailing throughout the South of having him released, and stated their intention, if meeting with his approval, of proceeding to Washington, &c., for the purpose of having a personal interview with President Johnson, and persuade him to liberate Mr. Davis. The latter replied that their efforts would be futile. His counsel, Mr. O'Connor, and more lately the Hon. Wm. B. Reed, had both personal interviews with the President for the same object, and the only answer to their petitions was, that he (Mr. Davis) would have to be tried under the charges now pending against him before both a civil and military tribunal. Providing, of course, that no now unforeseen circumstance should transpire in the time intervening before a trial should take place, but for the present he had given up all hopes of a release from his confinement. The two gentlemen, however, have left for Washington.

[Per contra, we notice a letter from the Rev. Mr. Keeley, one of the parties named above, to the Petersburg Index, in which he states that he has just returned from Washington, "not without hopes for the final safety of Mr. Davis."]

For Governor---Jonathan Worth.

The position of this paper in regard to the Gubernatorial election is already well known, without placing at the head of our columns, as we do to-day, the name of Jonathan Worth, of Randolph, for Governor. Even when there seemed to have been a prospect of formidable opposition in the candidacy of a strong personal and political friend, and a gentleman who has endeared himself to every true North Carolinian by conduct that will ever link his name in enviable distinction, with the most interesting and important chapter in the history of his native State, we earnestly urged that at this time, there should be no canvass forced upon the people of North Carolina. We said then, and time has more and more convinced us of the correctness of our opinion, that the people of the State were satisfied with their present Governor, and they had a reason to be so. It is now no time to distract and harass our people by an useless and injurious division of parties. They should be permitted to attend to their material prosperity, and by the unity, dignity and earnestness of their support of the President, establish their claim to the humane and just policy by which he is endeavoring to re-establish the Union of the States and restore the integrity of the Government.

Gov. Worth took charge of the Executive Office at a time unparallelled in our history. The surging waves of the great revolution were still drifting the ship of State about at random, the incapacity or treachery of the late helmsman having left her in dangerous proximity to destructive breakers. A public officer never retired from a position of trust having secured so little of the confidence of the people, as did Gov. Holden, nor was the retirement of a State functionary ever so heartily and honestly welcomed. The relations of our State government and the military, if not dangerous, were delicate and complicated, and their complications were much aggravated by the dishonest and unlawful interference of that political-civil-military hybrid, ycleped the Freedman's bureau. If civil law was recognized at all, it was by permission of the officers of the military and bureau. Aged and highly respectable citizens were dragged from remote portions of the State to Raleigh, upon the ex parte representations of ignorant and lying negroes, and often, while en route, placed in jail in order that the guard in charge might spend the night in drunken orgies or comfortable sleep. The pardoning power was converted into a great political engine, and the applications of our most distinguished and worthy citizens were lost sight of in the ample pidgeon-holes of the Executive desk, or of the more ample ones of the Washington Agent. Telegrams, followed prominent North Carolinians, who were seeking an honest and honorable livelihood in distant States, urging upon them the blood-hounds of a merciless and unprincipled tyrant.

The people of the State transferred the direction of affairs to Jonathan Worth, in this deplorable condition, their hopes, more than their judgment, expecting something to be done for their good. He has fully realized their expectations, and if our State affairs are not in as good condition as we could have hoped, they are equal if not superior to those of our Southern States. To be sure he has not urged the acceptance of terms of admission to the Union, which would not only deprive us of every benefit to be deprived therefrom, but would rob us of our self-respect. If, unlike Tennessee, North Carolina is not in the Union, also unlike her, she is not dishonored.

If the action of any people ever manifested a wish, the people of North Carolina have declared that at this time they did not desire a political canvass. There is no division among our people. They are unanimous in their support of the President and disapprobation of Congress. But that a Convention of fifteen men, representing eight counties, and not as many thousand voters, should place in nomination a candidate for Governor, is not to be wondered at, when we regard the disappointed ambition and insatiable thirst of the leaders. If a Radical Administration succeeds Mr. Johnson, these patriots will probably all be provided for.—What to them if the prosperity of the State languish and die, if they can fatten on the carcass?

We know not if the gentleman, General Alfred Dockery, will accept the nomination tendered him. He has the reputation of having a thirst for office, which this prospect, poor as it is, may appease. While we regard the opposition to Governor Worth as most feeble, the age of his opponent, and the political position which he formerly held in his party, requires us to regard the canvass as begun, and we, therefore, to-day, place at the head of our columns the candidate we shall support.—Wilmington Journal.

Mr. C. T. Post, a member of the Radical Central Committee of Fillmore County, Minnesota, leaves the concern, and in a published note says:

I am for the whole Union, without Congressional restriction, except the right of "each House" to judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members." I am for the Union the late war was prosecuted to preserve. I endorse the reconstruction policy of President Johnson, and approve the declaration of principles of the late Philadelphia Convention, and hope to see them sustained by the American people.

Botts.—A radical meeting was held at Paterson, New Jersey, on the 19th., which was addressed by John Minor Botts, in which he attacked the policy of the President, favoring his impeachment, and advocates the adoption of the constitutional amendment. He thought that each State should settle the question of negro suffrage for itself.

TABLEAUX.—We are requested to give notice that there will be an exhibition of Tableaux, at New Hope, in this county, on Tuesday evening next, for the benefit of the Memorial Association of Wake.

COURSE OF LECTURES.—We are gratified to learn that the Young Men's Christian Association are perfecting their arrangements for securing a full and attractive course of Lectures the ensuing winter. For this they deserve the thanks of the community. The proceeds will alleviate much of suffering among the poor, while the Lectures will afford rational entertainment and pleasing instruction to all classes. Lectures from Dr. Deems and the Hon. S. F. Phillips have already been promised, and it is contemplated to have scientific Lectures from competent gentlemen, accompanied by practical experiments. This is a capital idea. By popularizing science in this manner, great good may be accomplished.

MILITARY.—We learn that Bt. Maj. Gen. Robinson, commanding this Department, has been granted leave of absence, and that the command has been temporarily transferred to Bt. Brig. Gen. Goff, Col. of the 37th. Regiment U. S. colored troops.

"THE LAND WE LOVE."—We hail with pleasure the September number of this valuable periodical. The table of contents is very interesting. We notice among the most striking articles: "A sketch of the Hon. Geo. E. Badger," by Wm. Eaton, Jr., Esq; "Mistaken Sympathy," by Gen. Hill; and "A Sketch of General Price," by Col. Brand. The other articles are full of interest and sustain the high reputation of the magazine.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.—A friend in Guilford informs us that the following excellent ticket will be supported by the Johnson-Worth men in that county, for the Legislature, viz:—For the Senate, Peter Adams, Esq.; for the House of Commons, Col. J. T. Morehead, Jr., Colonel J. A. Houston, and W. R. Smith, Esq.

Jas. H. Everett is announced as a candidate for re-election to the House of Commons from the county of Wayne.

Gen. A. J. Dargan is a candidate for re-election to the House in Anson.

Mr. C. L. Cobb and Col. Joseph S. Jones are candidates for the House of Commons, from Pasquotank county.

R. K. Speed and Gen. William E. Mann are candidates to repeesent the Senatorial District of Pasquotank and Perquimans.

THE RT. REV. BISHOP GREEN, of Mississippi, administered the right of confirmation, in St. John's church, Wilmington, on Sunday after noon.

RESTORATION.—A Northern correspondent who has just arrived in New Orleans, telegraphs as follows to the New York Herald:

"I have recently travelled over Virginia, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, and everywhere observed peace and quiet. Wherever I have been ex-officers and Northern Abolitionists are treated courteously, and in all those States they are fully protected as if they were in Massachusetts. I failed to find any bitterness towards the government or Northern people. The South accept the results of the war in good faith, but will never consent to the voting of negroes if their voice will be heard."

The wooden shoes worn by peasants of both sexes in Belgium are purchased at from four to seven cents a pair, and are hard to wear out.

Ten dollars will buy a broad-cloth coat, eight dollars a travelling suit, and thirty-two cents a pair of kid gloves in London. If the cable was only a ferry—eh?

Forney publishes in his Chronicle an article entitled "There is Death in the Pot." It is natural to suppose that the "Dead Duck" would reach that destination.

General Butler, the Beast, said in a recent speech that the rattlesnake was no brother of his. This announcement will go far towards removing the odium that attaches to the reptile.

An artist invited a gentleman to criticise a portrait of a Mr. Smith, who was somewhat addicted to drink. Putting his hands towards it, the artist exclaimed: "Dont touch it, it is not dry." "Then," said he, "it cannot be like my friend Smith."

General McClellan has written a letter approving the proceedings of the Philadelphia National Convention.

The War Department and General Grant have each intimated to Gen. Sheridan, that he can be relieved from duty at New Orleans.

A box of new tobacco was sold in Richmond Wednesday, for $116 per cwt. It was grown in North Carolina.

The 'Loyal" Convention.

As we predicted, this Convention turned out to be a very small affair. Some twenty persons were present, hailing from some nine or ten Counties in the State. Yet they publish their proceedings as those of a "mass meeting" of the people of the State. This great "Mass Meeting" nominated Gen. ALFRED DOCKERY, of Richmond County, as a candidate for Governor in opposition to Gov. Worth. Whether Gen. Dockery will accept or not remains to be seen. We suppose that he will. If he does, he is destined to an overwhelming defeat. The cry of "Worth and stay out," or "Dockery and go in," will produce no effect upon the people this time. There is nothing in the record of General Dockery before the war or during the war, calculated to render him more acceptable to the Federal Government than Governor Worth. His record since the war, and his present status, are to be relied upon for that purpose. He is for the Howard amendment, and a large proscription, while Gov. Worth is opposed to it. No one can pretend to say that he is a more loyal man than Gov. Worth, or that he has a better Union record.

This "mass meeting" profoundly regrets the "defection of Gov. Worth from the Union cause," and the influence which prominent instigators and actors in the rebellion are exerting over him in his official conduct. Yet they declare their belief that in the event of the ratification of the Howard amendment, "the disability to hold or be eligible to office imposed therein, will in every proper case be removed without discrimination as to any class or party of our fellow citizens on account of their antecedents." This is an assurance to the Secessionists, or supporters of the confederate cause, that they can at once make their peace with the government and be rendered eligible to office by joining with the radicals in support of the Howard amendment. And this is the party which denounces Gov. Worth for having appointed men to office who were supporters of the Confederacy. This "mass meeting" sets up its own standard of loyalty, and invites all men to join them upon equal terms under that standard. Yet when Gov. Worth and his friends do the same thing, they are denounced for their affiliation with "the instigators of the rebellion." What consistency!—Old North State.

Johnson Mass Meeting.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Sept. 20.—A large Johnson mass meeting was held here yesterday, which was addressed by Colonel Nelson and Rev. S. B. Carter. The resolutions which were adopted endorse and ratify the Philadelphia Union Convention, and, on behalf of the Union men of East Tennessee, protest against the late Southern Convention, which declared in favor of negro suffrage.

The following telegram was received from the President:

Executive Mansion, Washington, September 19. To John Williams, Esq.: I regret that it will be out of my power to be with the people of my adopted home in Knoxville this day. Though I cannot be with them in person, I will be with them in spirit, in feeling, and in sentiment. It is hoped that after they have struggled so long and so much for the preservation of the Union, they will not be misled by designing, bad men, whose policy, if carried out, will result in a dissolution of the Union and a change of our free institutions.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

ASSASSINATION OF A DELEGATE TO THE NATIONAL UNION CONVENTION.—A private despatch received in this city yesterday announces that Colonel George V. Moody, of Port Gibson, was assassinated on Saturday night at his home in Port Gibson. It appears that he was sitting in his office alone, at about 10 o'clock, at night, when he was fired upon from a window, nineteen buckshot entering his head and neck, killing him instantly. At the time the dispatch left Port Gibson there was no suspicion as to who was guilty of the atrocious murder, and the horrible affair remained a mystery. Col. Moody was an able lawyer and a courteous gentleman. His death will be deplored by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He was a brave officer, having served with distinction through the whole of the late war. He escaped death on the battle-field to meet it at the hands of a cowardly assassin. Colonel Moody was a delegate from this State to the Philadelphia Convention, and passed through here a few weeks since on his return home. Mrs. Moody accompanied him North, and we learn is now in New York, and was to leave that city, in a few days to rejoin her husband at Port Gibson.—Jackson (Miss.) Clarion, Sept. 11th.

Failure of the Cotton Crop.

NEW ORLEANS, September 18.—News from the cotton regions continue to report the injury to the crop serious and wide-spread. Only a small district on the uplands of the Mississippi seems to be exempt. Otherwise, the States of Louisiana and Mississippi are affected with nearly a total loss of the cotton crop, while very little corn or other breadstuffs have been raised. This is especially the case where the negroes have worked on shares, which leaves them now very reluctant to labor, and greatly disheartened.

Remittance of Confederate Treasury Notes.

The Secretary of the Treasury has received a communication from an anonymous correspondent at Goldsboro', N. C., enclosing $200 in Confederate Treasury notes, which the writer states he was by mistake overpaid during the last year of the rebellion, in some dealings with a quartermaster. Being a Union man he did not return the money to the rebel Government, feeling that he was justifiable under the circumstances in retaining it. Supposing that the rebel debt might possibly be assumed by the United States government, he encloses the same to the Treasury.—N. Y. Herald.

This flattery of Gen. Dockery comes ill-timed from the Standard,—a print that has heaped as much, if not more, ridicule upon the pretentions of the old General, than upon any other man in the State. But, if he can be turned to account by the Standard, the part will be forgotten, and the present only considered.

It will be strange if Gen. Dockery should consent to be made the tool of the Standard.—Don't believe it.—Goldsboro News.

In great alarm the Baltimore American (Radical) publishes the following:

"There is to-day at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, ordinance of all kinds to equip an army of 200, 000 men, with but a single regiment to protect them. Although officially notified of the fact, there has been no attention paid to the notifications of the danger involved. The South was never better armed than now."

Charles Francis Adams, Ullysses S. Grant, Henry Ward Beecher, B. B. Curtis, and David G. Farragut, are on the side of the President; while William G. Brownlow, with his pine-knot torches and his spirits of turpentine, and Horace Greeley, B. F. Butler, the pedantic Sumner, and the paradoxical Wendell Phillips, are opposed to him. Comment is unnecessary.

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22, P. M.

The President has directed that in consequence of the pressure of public business, he will hereafter be obliged to decline receiving any committees or delegations whose principal object is to present programmes for removals and appointments to office; all such business must necessarily be referred to the appropriate Departments of the Government for attention.

The War Department has issued orders No 77 to the effect that the Headquarters of the Department of Tennessee is transferred from Nashville, Tenn., to Louisville, Ky.

James R. Hood, formerly of the Chattanooga Gazette, has been appointed Secretary of Colorado Territory.

Sept. 23rd.—The difficulty between the United States, Brazil and the Argentine Republic, with reference to our Minister to Paraguay passing through the military lines of the allied army, has been adjusted. The U. S. Government notified them if they should persist in refusal, it would be regarded as a violation of international customs and courtesy. These representations had the desired effect, and our Minister was allowed to proceed.

A large number of prominent supporters of the President's policy from Maine and Newhampshire are here, urging the President to remove certain officers in those States who are bitterly opposed to the Administration.

U. S. Mail Agent Arrested for Murder.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 22, P. M.

The steamer General Russell, a mail packet between Cincinnati and Louisville, was boarded at Warsaw, night before last, by three hundred men, who forcibly seized C. W. Ferris, U. S. Mail Agent, and took him ashore. Ferris was Provost Marshal at Warsaw during the war, and was instrumental in the execution of two Guerrillas, by order of General Burbridge. The Gazette and Commercial say that he was arrested without a warrant, while the Engineer affirms that a true bill had been found against him by the grand jury of Carroll County, for murder.

THE greeting which passed between some ex-confederate soldiers at Memphis and the gallant soldiers in convention at Cleaveland, shows the feeling which possesses the masses on both sides who did the fighting. The ex-confederates stated in their dispatch that they are willing to trust their status in the Union to their old enemies.

This is the spirit which is exhibited by all the gallant men who went to the front. Among them, on both sides, there exists only mutual respect. They have tested each other's gallantry, and they have acquired in each other a well-founded confidence. Show us a man who went to the front and did his duty, and we shall have a man who throughly respects and is entirely willing to trust his late opponents.—Show us a men who is howling for the punishment of "traitors," and we have a man who does not know, through experience, the butt of a musket from its muzzle.—Chicago Times.

A portion of the "Southern Loyalist" party arrived at Erie, N. Y. on the 20th, and addressed a large meeting. Brownlow was very ill and fainted in an attempt to speak at the depot. He was so weak as to require assistance to stand, and he passed directly on to Cleveland. The remainder of the party arrived in the afternoon and all passed on under the charge of a reception committee from Cleveland, headed by Mayor Chapin. At Conneaut, Ashtabula and Painesville large crowds greeted the party with cheers and bonfires.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses excite the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and ernptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.
